

OA Obligation

I do hereby promise on my honor as a scout that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow.

Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui.

I will always regard the ties of Brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow as lasting and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities.

And will endeavor,
so far as in my power lies,
to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.

OA Song

Firm bound in Brotherhood gather the clan that cheerful service brings to fellowman.

Circle our council fire,
weld tightly every link
that binds us in Brotherhood.

Wimachtendienk.

Notes

Chiefly Speaking

My Fellow Brothers,

“Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service” are some of the words we repeat, but never seem to really understand.

“Brothers, we challenge you: Strengthen the ties of brotherhood...” Don’t simply maintain the ties, strengthen them. Make them stronger; make them lasting... make them permanent.

“...Build upon the fire of cheerfulness...” You can only kindle a fire the size of what you put into it. Many choose to put in a little, and they receive that in return. Only those who put their whole self into the fire of cheerfulness will gain cheerfulness. Therefore, build upon the fire of cheerfulness with your whole life, not just parts of it.

“...Ease the burdens from your fellow Scouts!” Look around. There are many of your fellow Scouts that are crying out for help. Help them. Your Troop and your fellow Scouts need you. Be there.

As another year comes and goes, the ties of “brotherhood, cheerfulness, and service” that we make stay. These are things that are lasting, these are things that are meaningful, and these are things that are constant and unchanging. The principles of the Order of the Arrow are rock steady principles that you can depend on, but the Order’s success is measured by your participation.

As a member of Scouting’s National Honor Society, uphold its traditions and principles – principles of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service.

“He alone is worthy to wear the Arrow, who will continue to serve his fellow man.” - Allowat Sakima

Communications

Here are some things you can do to keep yourself informed about OA

The Yahoo! Group that the chapter has is a major source of information about upcoming events and programs going on within the chapter. To join the group, go to www.groups.yahoo.com/group/ayochatta\_chapter and click the “Join This Group!” button.

The Facebook Group that the chapter has is a great source of information about all upcoming events, and all of our chapter photos to join this group go to <https://www.facebook.com/groups/ayochatta/> and join the group. It is updated regularly and messages are sent through it.

For the new Arrowmen, the Elangomat program is another way information gets out. Prior to every event, your Elangomat will give you a call and/or send you an e-mail, depending on what way is best to reach you.

The Ayochatta Chapter website is another way that we get information to chapter members. To view the site, and all the important information on it, go to www.ayochatta.org.

The OA Troop Representative program is the most efficient way to get information to chapter members within your troop. If your troop isn't using the OA Troop Representative Program, you are missing out on a lot of information. No matter how great the top four ways are the OA Troop Representative is the most efficient. For more information about the OA Troop Representative Program, contact the OA Troop Representative Chairman.

As a member of Ayochatta Chapter, you are, on a larger scale, also a member of Tipisa Lodge. To view information regarding the lodge, please visit the Tipisa Lodge website at www.tipisa.org.
